

Want to get the most out of your EACR membership?
Here are some things you might want to do...

Profile

visit eacr.org and login using the link at the top of the page

- Add a second email so we don't lose touch with you (e.g. if you change institutes)
- Add some areas of interest and a description to tell us about yourself
- Add website and social media links so others can follow your news and research
- Add a photo to be more approachable
- Make yourself visible to other members on the EACR Member Network
(click: Update My Details -> My Profile and Privacy). This is a great resource to help researchers connect with others in their field or local area and foster collaborations.

Community

- Read/share an issue of the EACR email news bulletin
- Add the 'Proud EACR Member' badge to your CV or lab webpage. Download it from eacr.org/badge
- Join the EACR Members' Science Book Club on LinkedIn eacr.org/book-club
- Find projects or add your own using the 'Find a Collaboration' tool eacr.org/find-a-collaboration
- Contact a fellow EACR member using the Member Network message function
- Share info about membership with colleagues who might be interested
- Think about becoming an EACR Ambassador eacr.org/ambassadors
- Watch a video from our archive eacr.org/virtual-events-video-archive

Find us on social media

@eacrnews

/eacr.org

European Association
for Cancer Research

@helloeacr

Events

- Attend an EACR Virtual Event
- Attend an EACR Congress or Conference and present your own abstract
- Take a selfie at an EACR event and share it on social media
- Share the details of a relevant EACR conference with your lab