EACR European Association for Cancer Research

The EACR is a professional membership association for cancer researchers, with a community of more than 10,000 members worldwide.

We organise two types of conference:

1

EACR Congress

Plenary and parallel sessions on a wide range of breaking topics

1500-2000 participants and 70+ top speakers

2

EACR Conferences

6-8 meetings per year

Plenary sessions on focused topics

Intimate and friendly atmosphere with 100-250 participants and 16-18 top speakers

How do participants define EACR Conferences?

98%

would recommend the conference they attended to others*

Interactive... offers many opportunities to create new collaborations with other scientists

Intimate... the small number of participants (100-250) and extra networking activities encourage interaction

Innovative + Focused... 'hot topics' and high quality talks by world-renowned speakers
